UCOR Pledges $100,000 to Emory Valley Center for New Facility

Oak Ridge, Tenn., Jan. 9, 2012 – URS | CH2M HILL Oak Ridge (UCOR) presented a $20,000 check to Emory Valley Center in Oak Ridge last Friday as the first installment of a five-year, $100,000 commitment. The funds will be used to help build a new facility that will replace the current aging structure, which will be demolished in the next few years. The center oversees several programs that provide assistance to adults with varying degrees of mental, physical, and emotional disabilities. Pictured during the check presentation are (from left) Congressman Chuck Fleischmann, 3rd District; Leo Sain, UCOR President and Project Manager; Jennifer Enderson, President of Emory Valley Center; and Dr. Gene Caldwell, Emory Valley Center Capital Campaign Co-Chair.
