

Jamie Standridge

Chief of Staff

Jamie Standridge is UCOR's Chief of Staff. In this role, he provides direct support to UCOR's President and Chief Executive Officer and works to create synergy across the executive leadership team, the Department of Energy (DOE), and key stakeholders.

Prior to becoming Chief of Staff, Jamie was UCOR's Funds Manager in charge of overseeing budget operations for the UCOR LLC contract. In that role, he collaborated with DOE's Oak Ridge Office of Environmental Management to ensure that sufficient funding was received to cover contract requirements. He also performed data analysis to ensure costs are consistent with project estimates and provided recommendations on out-year budgets to senior management.

Jamie was previously Director of Business Services with DOE's Oak Ridge National Laboratory Site Office, where he oversaw contract administration, human resources, financial, and strategic partnership programs of Oak Ridge National Laboratory (ORNL) and the Oak Ridge Institute for Science and Education (ORISE).

He also served as Director of DOE's Planning and Budget Division in Oak Ridge, responsible for managing budget operations and providing federal oversight of contractor financial management at ORNL, the East Tennessee Technology Park, ORISE, the Pacific Northwest National Laboratory, the Thomas Jefferson National Laboratory, and the Stanford Linear Accelerator Center.

Jamie was Acting Chief Financial Officer of DOE's Oak Ridge Operations, overseeing a $4.6 billion federal budget, accounting operations, and audit services. He served as Acting Deputy Manager of the Oak Ridge Office and also served as Field Coordinator for the Deputy Director of Field Operations for the Office of Science.

Jamie is a graduate of Tennessee Technological University, where he received a bachelor's degree in accounting, and the University of Tennessee, where he was awarded a Master of Business Administration.
