

G. Michael Brown

General Counsel

As General Counsel, Michael manages UCOR's legal department. The goal of this office is to enable UCOR to legally and effectively continue its important work on behalf of the American taxpayer.

Michael joined UCOR in January 2023 as Deputy General Counsel. His career spans legal and public affairs assignments within DOE and the U.S. Department of Commerce as well as lobbying on behalf of private energy companies for both traditional fuels and emerging technologies. During his time on government projects, Michael's portfolio included environment, ethics and compliance laws, international trade, and foreign affairs issues. He also led DOE efforts to modernize and reform National Environmental Policy Act requirements.

Outside of government service, Michael has worked on political campaigns in thirty-seven states and has been part of numerous national and international advocacy operations.

Michael earned his law degree from the University of Missouri at Columbia. During law school, he was the Associate Editor-in-Chief for the environment and energy law journal, member of the Honor Code Committee, and of the Board of Advocates. Michael studied at Cambridge University in the United Kingdom, where he received credits for scholarly work in International Law and the History of Common Law in Britain. Michael has a Bachelor of Arts degree in History from Texas Tech University and a Master of Public Affairs (MPA) with an emphasis on group dynamics, cross-cultural negotiation, and terror networks.
