

Mark C. Pfizenmayer

General Counsel, Ethics Officer, and Board Secretary

Mark C. Pfizenmayer is UCOR's General Counsel, Ethics Officer, and Board of Managers Secretary. In this role, he is the senior legal advisor to the company and responsible for managing all the company's litigation and legal matters.

Mark came to UCOR with over a decade of litigation experience. Immediately prior to joining UCOR, Mark was an Assistant U.S. Attorney in the District of New Mexico, where he prosecuted felony drug and violent crimes, including practicing before the Tenth Circuit Court of Appeals. While there, he was part of the Organized Crime Drug Enforcement Task Force and was selected to be the Opioid Crises Response Coordinator. Before that, he was a Special Assistant U.S. Attorney in the Southern District of California, an active-duty judge advocate in the U.S. Marine Corps, and a patent examiner at the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office.

Mark has extensive experience in advising clients. He started his Marine Corps career as a legal assistance attorney, where he advised individual Marines on a wide range of civil matters. He then deployed as the battalion judge advocate for 2d Battalion, 8th Marine Regiment, where he was the sole legal advisor to the battalion during combat operations in Afghanistan. In the Marine Corps Reserves, he provided advice as part of the Law of War Training Section, served as a reserve operational law attorney with the Staff Judge Advocate for Marine Corps Forces Cyberspace Command, and currently serves as an Article 32 preliminary hearing officer.

Mark earned his Bachelor of Science degree in Computer Engineering from the University of Notre Dame, and his law degree with a concentration in intellectual property from the Chicago-Kent College of Law. He is admitted to the state bars of California and Tennessee. He is also registered to practice before the U.S. Patent Office.

Education

Juris Doctor

Illinois Institute of Technology, Chicago-Kent College of Law, Chicago, Illinois

Bachelor of Science, Computer Engineering

University of Notre Dame, Notre Dame, Indiana

Previous Positions

Assistant U.S. Attorney

Albuquerque, New Mexico

Special Assistant U.S. Attorney

San Diego, California

United States Marine Corps

Major, Judge Advocate
Various U.S. and Overseas Assignments

U.S. Patent & Trademark Office

Patent Examiner
Alexandria, Virginia